

COMMUNITY SERVICE CHAPLAINCY TRAINING

»» LEVEL ONE TRAINING

What is a Community Service Chaplain?

Community Service Chaplains are men and women dedicated to the spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being of the employees, residents, patients, inmates, or anyone served in the institution or agency where a CSC provides ministry.

A Community Service Chaplain may be a professional clergy or a layperson committed to minister outside the walls of the church. CSC's most often serve in a volunteer capacity as representatives of a local church or agency under the supervision of a local pastor or agency supervisor.
